NOTICE

Change to Social Security Walk-In Services on Thursday, September 24, 2015

Due to the Pope's visit next week, it is expected that there will be considerable disruption to traffic and commuting patterns in the city. Therefore, the Social Security Administration (SSA) will not provide walk-in services on Thursday, September 24, at the OFM Customer Service Center at 3507 International Place, NW, Washington, DC. Foreign mission members may visit the SSA at 2100 M Street, NW, Washington, DC, or any local SSA office on a walk-in basis.

The appointments already scheduled at the SSA office (2100 M Street, NW, Washington, DC) for September 24th will continue to be honored.

The SSA representative will be at the OFM Customer Service Center on Thursday, October 1, 2015.

The walk-in service for the last Thursday of October will remain as scheduled.

We apologize for the inconvenience.
